

BTH 332 : Evidences of Creation

An overview of the scientific evidence for the biblical teaching on Creation. The importance of this topic is stressed in light of its implications for all biblical theology. A distinctively Christian worldview is set in strong contrast to the secular humanism and evolutionary paradigms that often influence scientific thought in our present culture.

Credits 3