

GCA 131 : Oral Communication

Oral communication introduces the art of public speaking with an emphasis on preparation and delivery of a variety of speeches. Students receive instruction and practice in the selection, organization, and presentation of speech materials and the opportunity to develop social poise and self-confidence.

Credits 3