

GCA 350 : Structure of the English Language

Surveys the important structure, grammar, and syntax of the English language essential for non-native speakers to know. The course teaches idiosyncrasies of each language group and how that affects learning English. A variety of techniques used in teaching language structure are explored.

Credits 3