

GHS 212 : Restoration History

The principles and personalities of the Restoration Movement are presented in class lectures and student research. The historical documents, doctrines, messages, and methods of the great men of this movement to restore the New Testament church are examined and explained.

Credits 3