

GHS 344 : Modern Church History

Studies the history and development of the church from the Renaissance to the 21st century. Special emphasis is given to those movements and ideas which have led to the rise of the major denominations.

Credits 3