

GPS 310 : World Religions & Culture

Focuses on the origins and practices of various religions of the world. Special attention is given to how cultures express the worldviews of the religious environment in which they develop. These religions and cultures are compared and contrasted to the teachings of Christianity.

Credits 3