

MML 630 : Professional and Team Development

A study of the dynamics of leadership development in both the leader's own life and in the ministry organization. This course will provide strategies and practices for the continued development of the ministry leader and for the growth of new leaders for the church or parachurch organization. (3 credits)

Credits 3