

PCM 336 : Youth & Family Counseling

Assists the student in ministering to young people and their parents. Principles of counseling are discussed and applied to young people. Stages of development and common problems are also examined.

Credits 3