

PCM 397 : Seminar in Christian Counseling

Students will explore the Christian counseling process and apply it to specific issues such as depression, stress and anxiety, personality disorders, addictions, and others. The class features a trip to the American Association of Christian Counselors (AACC) convention. There is a lab fee for this class.

Credits 3