

PED 367 : Philosophy of Education

An examination of the historical background of Western education. The ideas of various philosophies of education are explored as well as their influence upon current practices in Christian and public schools. Students examine the outstanding educators of history to learn their values and methodology.

Credits 3