

III. Community Covenant

CCCB's students step out of the world to live a higher calling. As Saints, their relationship to God, each other, other Christians, and those yet to be saved, is to be distinctly Christ-like. Central's students work, live, and grow together in a spiritually transformed community that expresses authentic Kingdom living. As members of Central's Christ-centered learning community of authentic believers and servant leaders, we support one another and hold one another accountable in our words, attitudes, actions, and service to pursue these qualities of spiritual maturity:

- We covenant together to live a life that honors God, submits to His Word, assembles with His church, practices spiritual disciplines, and serves His creation.
- We covenant together to love and support one another through personal and respectful interactions, compassionate sensitivity to others, and gracious acts of redemptive confrontation and forgiveness.
- We covenant together to be self-disciplined and self-controlled as we seek to grow in genuine Christ-likeness, improve our service, and pursue excellence in fulfilling our God-given mission.
- We covenant together to demonstrate integrity, honesty, truthfulness, humility, and purity in words and actions.

As members of this spiritual community, we covenant together to uphold these characteristics of spiritual maturity so that God will be honored on our campus. Our desire is for Central to be known for the quality of her students and her graduates.
