

3.2-2 Unity in Diversity

CCCB does not unlawfully discriminate based on race, color, sex, age, disability, nationality, or ethnic origin in employment, admissions, financial aid, or participation in College programs. God created us in His image, male and female, with a spectrum of colors and languages spread across the globe. It is not wise, nor is it acceptable to dishonor someone based on these differences; instead, we should celebrate those differences, attributing our diversity to the God who created us. No acts of prejudice or racism or disrespect will be excused for any reason. All incidents, regardless of the perpetrator, should be reported. And more importantly, the community should not accept or condone any such divisiveness. Speak up for each other; promote unity wherever you go. Psalm 133:1 says, "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is For brothers to dwell together in unity?"
