

MML 810 : Profiles in Biblical Leadership

With the goal of an integrated biblical theology of leadership, this course is a study in biblical examples, biblical people, models, and teachings concerning leadership. It explores identity and vocation, credibility, and authenticity in leadership, as well as issues related to culture, community, and organizational realities that interact with biblically based leadership. (3 credits)

Credits 3